"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" VICIOUS.

So Says F. Hopkinson Smith in Another Interview.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 14.-F. Hopkinson Smith, the well-known author and lecturer, recently declared that Mrs. Stowe's famous book, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," was vicious and harmful in its'effect on its readers. In an interview yesterday in this city Mr. Smith repeated the statement and gives the following as his reasons:

"Because it paints an absurdly false pic-ture of the conditions of the South before the war. The book would have us believe that the Southern people were brutes who tracked slaves with bloodhounds and flayed their negroes with the lash. It is a book which divides our country into halves and aints the people of the north side of the ividing line as angels and those on the outh side as brutes and miscreants A ook like that is harmful. I not only believe that the book did much to bring on the civil war, but I believe it is doing much to keep open the breach between the North and South. I think it is wrong that our young people should read and venerate that book as a true picture of American life south of the Mason and Dixon line. The performance of the play adapted from the book is just as harmful. The book 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' precipitated the war of the rebellion; John Brown's raid made it in-

Meeting of Revenue Reduction Bill

Conferers-General Notes.

Admiral Dewey, who is suffering from a cold, expects to be out soon. It is said that the United States government is taking no active part in the negotiations in progress at Copenhagen respecting the sale of the Danish West Indian slands to the United States.

Generals James H. Wilson, Fitzhugh Lee and Theodore Schwan will be retired today, the last named on his own application. Col. A. S. Daggett, Fourteenth Infantry, will be promoted to a brigadier general succeeding Schwan, and will be retired immediately with his higher rank. The record in the case of Capt. Oberlin

M. Carter was filed in the United States Supreme Court yesterday. The case is an appeal from the decision of the Circuit Court of the United States for the district of Kansas denying Carter's motion for a writ of habeas corpus.

Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, to-day presented the President a magnificent album containing scenes of the coronation of the Czar in 1896. The album is a present and souvenir from the Czar to President McKinley and was specially made for the latter. The front of the album has medallion portraits of gold of the Russian ruler and his wife.

The first conference on the revenue reduction bill was held to-day, the Democratic members attending as well as the Republicans. It led to a general discussion of both measures, but none of the items was taken up in detail. Nor was the conference productive of any general results in the way of agreement. No exact time was fixed for reassembling, but it was understood a meeting might be called on Satur-

The North Natuna islands will form the terminus of the line.

The President and Mrs. McKinley gave a dinner at the White House to-night, in honor of the members of the diplomatic corps. It was the first social function given by the President since his convalescence from the attack of grip. To accommodate the large number of guests the table was set in the long corridor. Its centerpiece was of orchids, while scattered over the table were a number of smaller mounds, mainly in primroses of the color of orchids. An orchestra from the Marine Band furnished the music. The President escorted Senora De Espiroz, wife of the ambassador from Mexico, to the table, and the German ambassador Mrs. McKinley. After the dinner a number of specially invited guests asmusic and dancing, the state dining room being used for the latter. Among those present were Representative and Mrs. C. B. RINKARD MURDER TRIAL.

The State's Witness in Rebuttal Punctures the Insanity Plea.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, Ind., Feb. 14.-The defense in the Rinkard murder trial closed this afternoon, having examined more than a dozen witnesses to establish the fact of the insanity of Rinkard when he killed his wife last June. The witnesses included several physicians and many neighbors of the acpeculiar conduct of Rinkard prior to the shooting. At 3 o'clock the state began the examination of witnesses in rebuttal. It is expected that the arguments will not begin until Friday morning. The star witness of the day was Dr. Rogers, superintendent of the Northern Indiana Hospital for the Insane, at Logansport, and one of the leading experts in nervous diseases in the country. His replies to the queries of the state's attorneys were most damaging to the prisoner's case, The doctor said, in answer to a hypothetical question defining the case of Rinkard, that such a murderer would not necessarily be insane.
